

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 286 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, NOV. 27TH, 1952

This is Thanksgiving. Let us all be thankful and count our blessings one by one and "it will surprise you to see what the Lord hath done." . . . Today's Bulletin is brief in order to give the entire staff a holiday. Any news items for Friday's Bulletin should be phoned in before 8 o'clock Friday morning if possible. . . Thursday will have a full schedule with church services, radio, television, golf, horseback riding, visiting and entertaining. Union Thanksgiving service at Methodist Church at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Chas. L. McGavern preaching. Christian Science service at 11 o'clock. Land-Union service at the Methodist Church with the Rev. Harold Schumacher of the Baptist Church preaching. . . Funeral services for Mrs. Carmel Bradley Westbrook will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at Mill Creek Church of the Brethren.

BULLETIN 20 YEARS AGO

Tryon Kiwanis Club sets aside $110 for the purchase of registered pigs and lespedeza seed to be given deserving 4-H Club members who will pay back to Kiwanis a pig each from the first litters. Kiwanis will take these pigs and give them to some more boys and thus keep the good work revol-

Continued on Back Page

Santa Claus In Spartanburg

Santa Claus is coming to Spartanburg next week, riding atop a mammoth 110-foot giant balloon float, complete with sleigh and reindeer. Escorting Santa to town will be 17 bands representing Wofford College, high schools in the area, and the American Legion.

Santa's float will be just one of the 42 giant balloons making an appearance in Spartanburg to officially open the Christmas season. The balloons valued at over $125,000, will depict the famous Christmas Story, "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Another feature of this year's parade will be the floats and other decorated units. A total of 19 floats and other units have been entered and they include the beautiful Lance of Charlotte float, along with the Liggett & Meyers float from Durham.

Other bands represent Wofford College, Spartanburg High School, Carver High School, Sims High of Union, Granard High of Gafney, Blacksburg High, Tri-High of Caroleen, Union High School, Woodruff High, Greer High, Forest City High, Inman High, Fairforest High, District Five of Duncan, Chesnee, Cowpens High, and the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED

Among the entertainments in honor of Miss Mary Adams, bride-elect of Saturday, Nov. 29th, was a cocktail party on Monday at The Villa, given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Bartol Jr., and a dinner on Tuesday given by Mrs. Wayne V. O'Neil at Still Pond in the Hunting Country. Thursday's par-

Continued on Back Page