Miss Mary Adams Weds Mr. Robert T. Burnett

Miss Mary Hortense Adams, daughter of Mrs. Cuyler Culver Adams and the late Mr. Adams, was married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock to Mr. Robert Trafford Burnett, of New York City, son of the Rev. C. Percy Burnett of Charlotte, N. C., and the late Mrs. Burnett. The Rev. Mr. Burnett was for many years rector of the Church of the Holy Cross in Tryon. The ceremony was performed in the chapel of Holy Cross by the rector, the Rev. Charles L. McGavern.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Cuyler Culver Adams Jr., of Minneapolis, Minn. She wore her paternal grandmother's wedding gown of ivory brocaded satin and duchess lace. On the front of the full trained skirt was a spray of miniature gardenias and sweetheart roses and a nosegay of the same flowers topped the white Prayer Book which she carried. Her pale pink French illusion veil fell from a coronet of lace and orange blossoms.

Mrs. Louis de Sassaure Simonds Jr., of Charleston, S. C., the only sister of the bride, served as her matron-of-honor. Mrs. Simonds wore a floor length ruby red taffeta gown with matching bolero, and carried a nosegay of brandywine pink roses. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Cuyler C. Adams Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Constance Hardinge of Bristol, Va., and Miss Mary Quarles, of Plainfield, N. J., who wore brandywine pink taffeta gowns and carried ruby red roses. All of the at-
