

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 289 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1952

Weather Monday: High 46, low 21, Rel. Hum. 44 . . . It's raining rain now. All over this section filling reservoirs . . . General Eisenhower has completed his cabinet. Sinclair Weeks of Boston will be Secretary of Commerce and Martin P. Durkin of Chicago, a labor leader who voted for Stevenson, has been named Secretary of Labor . . . Adolfo Ruiz Continues was inaugurated president of Mexico Monday . . . Correction: The Landrum General Insurance Agency is opening TODAY instead of day mentioned in Monday's Bulletin . . . Orlando, former Italian leader, last of the Big Four with Woodrow Wilson, Lloyd-George, Clemenceau, died Monday. . . . The United Nations adopted India's plan to end Korean War by vote of 53 to 5 . . . President John McGuinn of the Lions Club stated that Miss Irene Paulus, Tryon and Polk County winner of the Voice of Democracy contest will speak today, Tuesday, December 2nd, at 1:45 over Radio Station WBBO, Forest City. She will be introduced by Mr. McGuinn.

Miss Eleanor Reppert of Tryon is a patient at St. Luke's Hospital. Patients discharged include Mrs. Azalee Solesbee of Landrum.

Former Landrum Men To Be Honored By Furman

The Rev. Archie Ellis, president of the North Carolina State Baptist Convention, pastor of the Salisbury First Baptist Church and formerly pastor of the Landrum First Baptist Church (his first church), will be given the honorary degree of doctor of divinity at the spring commencement of Furman University, his alma mater. The degree of L.L.D. will also be awarded to Mark F. Hawthorne, superintendent of the Anderson, S. C., city schools and formerly superintendent of the Landrum public schools. Mr. Hawthorne was at Landrum several years, was a leader in church and civic affairs. Since leaving Landrum he has served as Rotary District Governor, trustee of Coker College and leader in other educational affairs.

WILLIAM HANNON

William Henry Hannon, 62, died Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock, following a stroke at his home Sunday. Up until that time he had been in good health.

Funeral services will be announced by Woodward Funeral Home of Spartanburg. The date is depending upon the arrival of a son, Herbert Lee Hannon, at Officers Candidate School, San Antonio, Texas.

The deceased is survived by his widow, the former Mable Black, and 10 children as follows: William Marion Hannon, LaGuardia Airport, New York; Miss Marvelle, teacher at Sanford, N. C.; Noble Hannon, teacher at Wilkesboro; Mrs. Aurelia Perry, Tryon; Mrs. Elisha (Mable) Camp, Tryon; Ed-

Continued on Back Page