

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 291 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, DEC. 4, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 53, low 35, rain .02, Rel. Hum. 67 . . . Fred Owen will have the Rotary program Friday at 1 p. m., and will have as chief speaker, Dr. A. V. Dye, who recently returned from a tour of Scandinavia, England, Scotland, Germany, Switzerland, France, Italy . . . Abria Campbell, Polk County boy, living on Jack Kimberly's Eskdale Farm, and member of Landrum Future Farmers of America Chapter, has been awarded a free trip to Kansas City by the South Carolina Jersey Cattle Association in recognition of his achievement with his calf project. He was selected by the State F. F. A. Association . . . Walter Fortune is in Spartanburg General Hospital for treatment . . . The death of Will Hannon was a shock to the community as he was respected by both white and colored for his fine citizenship and the manner in which he conducted his business. He will be missed by many . . . Tryon High School Glee Club needs 40 vestments and anyone wishing to contribute to this particular project may send it to Miss Lula Burrell at the school . . . Free demonstration on Making Christmas decorations will be given Friday at 2 p. m. at Columbus school auditorium by Mrs. Jean Howard, Duke Power Company home economist . . .

LEAVE FOR INDUCTION

The following Polk County men left Tryon Thursday morning for the induction center at Charlotte: Carlee Pace, Joe Lee Bush, John Allen Horton, James Edwin Laughter, Billy E. McCurry, Weston Hampton Pace, Melvin Foster, Herman Scruggs, and William Booker Summey.

The Rev. Orville H. White, acting as chaplain for the Home Friendly Club, gave the Club's Prayer Book and Cross. Mrs. M. L. Thompson furnished and served coffee and apples. The Rotary Club gave cigarettes.

Stores Open Wednesdays

The stores of Tryon which normally close on Wednesday afternoons will remain open all day Wednesdays until after Christmas in order to take care of the extra Christmas shopping. The Tryon Chamber of Commerce committee made the announcement Wednesday.

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients at St. Luke's Hospital include Miss Jean McCain, Tryon; Mrs. Ralph Plumley, R-2, Landrum; Miss Blanche Bridgeman, Tryon. Discharges include Frank Copeland, R-1, Tryon; Geo. Bolt, Mill Spring; Mrs. Lucy Melton Saltz, Saluda; Mrs. Darthula Newmān, Tryon.

Bridge players who want to take lessons from Stanislas Czetwertynski at Pine Crest Inn Friday night and also see the "Curious Mrs. Savage" at the school house, will have to see Czetwertynski Friday night and Mrs. Savage Saturday night at the second performance.