CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 64, low 33, Rel. Hum. 47 . . . That "controversy" at the Episcopal Church tonight says Rev. Charles L. McEvern is "The Great Controversy the Early Church: Galatians" which will be given by Dr. George Farrand Taylor at the Parish House in the third of his series of lectures sponsored by the Men's Club at 8 o'clock . . . Chairman Ernest Gibbs of the Republican Executive Committee, states that Thursday night is the deadline for those wishing to buy tickets to the Eisenhower Victory Dinner at Sunnydale Saturday night and meet Charles Raper Jonas the first Republican Congressman from North Carolina in 24 years. In addition to those listed in the ad tickets may be obtained from Mrs. J. C. Woodley . . . Margaret Culkin Banning created quite a stir following her appearance at the Congressional committee investigating lurid literature. Mrs. Banning condemned sexy girlie magazines sold on news stands and found one of her own articles doctored up and displayed along with them under the title "Is Virginity Old Fashioned?" Mrs. Banning has received much praise from Congressional leaders for her work with social problems . . .
