THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 308 TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, DEC. 29TH, 1952

Weather is fair and cold, below freezing. Warming trend predicted for Tuesday and Wednesday. . . . Probably General Eisenhower is wrong. He said, "In the battle for Truth, you and I have a definite part to play through the Crusade for Freedom." An appeal was issued through The Bulletin for funds with which to carry on the Crusade for Freedom. Have you answered the appeal? The quota for the whole county is only $130, just a few cents for each person. Maybe you think the General is all wet. Governor Stevenson said, "The unique spirit of the Crusade for Freedom is its private and voluntary character." He knows how distasteful it is to be made to do things by force. Have you volunteered your small donation, to show your interest and to encourage those who are carrying on the fight to win the war with the least loss of life and property. Over 20 million people responded last year, and your help is needed now if you want to back up the program that is fighting for freedom everywhere, and that means us in the long run . . . . Robert R. Coker, Hartsville, S. C., Eisenhower Democrat, has been named by General Eisenhower on a non partisan agriculture advisory committee. . . The Men of the Holy
