Eagle Scout Ted Newhall

Ted Newhall, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Newhall was presented the Eagle Scout Award, the highest Boy Scout rank, Sunday morning at the Tryon First Baptist Church, sponsor of Troop No. 3 of which Ted was a member.

County District Chairman R. C. Burnett gave the award to the Scout's mother who pinned it on her son as a recognition of the part the mother plays in the advancement of a Scout. Then Eagle Scout Newhall pinned a miniature eagle pin on his mother.

R. B. Scruggs of the Church Committee presented to Scoutmaster Harold Taylor the new charter for troop No. 3 for the coming year.
