

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTITLED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 319 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1953

Weather Monday: High 53, low 31, Rel. Hum. 35 . . . Sealed bids for Landrum new water works addition to produce 500,000 gallons of water per day will be received in Landrum on February 5th, according to an announcement by Mayor Wade Staggs . . . Those with tickets to the Ballet in Spartanburg and unable to attend who would like for others to use them may telephone the Hearthiside and make connection with someone who would like to go . . . Arnold E. Hoffman, state music supervisor from Raleigh will be at the Tryon school Thursday at 2 p. m., says Mrs. Clarence Rhodes, local music teacher. All elementary school teachers in the county have been invited to meet with the supervisor at that time . . . Thursday night is duplicate bridge night and also Tryon P.-T. A. night. Friday brings the Rotary meeting at 1 p. m., and the Council of Churches . . . All the nation is talking about the 150th anniversary edition of the Charleston News and Courier and many editorials have been written about it. We haven't seen a copy but we feel that Tryon is a part of the Charleston and South Carolina history which the paper portrays. Its editor, Tom Waring, made his summer home here for several seasons. The special edition

Continued On Back Page

HOSPITAL NEWS

New admissions at St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. Walter Gibson, R-2, Campobello; Miss Grace Ann Mathis, R-1, Saluda; Mrs. R. T. Westmoreland, Landrum; Mrs. Eva Russell, Tryon. Discharges include Mrs. Earl Weaver and baby son of Landrum R-1; Mrs. J. C. Feder, Tryon; Charles Searcy, R-2, Mill Spring; Henry Pack, R-1, Mill Spring.

DR. C. L. BOOTH

Funeral services for Dr. C. L. Booth, 83, who did health work here during and following World War I, will be held today (Tuesday) at 3 p. m., at the Petty Funeral Home in Landrum. Burial will be in the Landrum Cemetery.

Dr. Booth came to Spartanburg in connection with the establishment of Camp Wadsworth and remained for a number of years after the war as director of a venereal disease clinic. He was a member of Spartan Lodge, No. 70, A. F. M.

The Rev. A. M. Jones will conduct funeral services.

Pallbearers: Homer Howard, O. T. Brady, J. E. Ballew, Ben Earl Blackwell, Thomas Raines and Fred Feagan.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Ralph W. Hench of Brooklyn, N.Y.

ATTEND ANNUAL MEET

Among those from Polk County to attend the annual meeting of the Piedmont Council of Boy Scouts of America, Monday night at Gastonia, were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Brank Proffitt, J. T. Arledge, R. H. Brady, Robert H. Millikin and Elbert H. Arledge.