Vol. 25—No. 260 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, JAN. 29TH, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 59, low 45, rain .31, Rel. Hum. 57 . . . War in Korea see-sawing. . . Chas. Wilson takes oath as Secretary of Defense . . . Three more planes carrying 25 passengers missing in Northwest Pacific . . . There will be a family night supper Sunday evening at 7 at the Tryon Presbyterian Church. All members are to be present, and bring a covered dish. After the supper, a mission film on "Korea Today" will be shown. . . .

PENALTY of 10 per cent goes into effect Sunday if you haven't listed your taxes. You have to do it every year. Are you tired of paying it. It is repeated for those who are procrastinators. If we can save some reader $10 to $100 we feel it is worth it.

DEADLINE, is also set for Saturday, January 31st, on NEW AUTO TAGS. If you are driving a car with a 1952 tag after Saturday you will be subject to arrest by the Highway Patrolman. Get yours today and save $10 or more dollars. Unless you want the experience of being arrested, fined and listed in Raleigh as "Case No. 647022."

Polk County Superior Court adjourned Thursday for the first week on account of the flu. Second week is still scheduled.
