CORRECTIONS: The 25th Anniversary Edition of The Bulletin brought out so many good things about the community and its people and let us know that hundreds of other good things were left out unintentionally. Please report them to us for the record. A lot of readers say they are going to save their copy for reference for its value in the contributed articles of distinguished Tryonites, of the new homes since The Bulletin started, listed according to neighborhoods, of the organization leaders, and for other reasons. So please report to us any corrections in order to keep the record straight as far as possible. Often people don't know the names of the various churches in the county and the name of the minister or leader. We have such a list in the Anniversary Edition. In the Tryon civic directory, the name of Capt. C. E. Dimick and not Mrs. Dimick should have been listed as treasurer of the Lanier Club. Probably the first time a man has ever held office in the Club, which now accepts men as members. Capt. Dimick is a great reader and intensely interested in the welfare of the library. In the list of

$272 FOR FROLIC

The net proceeds from the Farmers' Frolic at Columbus on Friday night was $272.48.

The P.-T. A. would like to take this opportunity to thank the merchants in Columbus and Tryon for their generous donations of door prizes, costume prizes and other prizes. Also great appreciation to the boosters of P.-T. A., who came and participated or bought tickets.

The P.-T. A. feels that with this kind of response they can continue to go forward in sponsoring activities to help our schools continue to progress.—Mrs. S. J. Craig, Chairman, Ways and Means Committee, P.-T. A.

Betty Sturgis Fashion Show Sponsored by St. Agnes Guild

The annual spring fashion show of the Betty Sturgis Shop, sponsored by St. Agnes Guild, will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday, Feb. 11th, beginning at 3.

The newest in women's clothes from the collections of America's top designers will be modeled by local talent which at last spring's Show scored such a brilliant triumph.

The designers whose collections will be represented in the show include Carolyn Schnurer, Claire McCardell, Hannah Troy, J. H. McMullen and Vera Maxwell. The hats will be by Betner.

A collection of children's clothes by Yolande will also be shown.

The following committee of the Guild will be in charge of the fashion show, Mrs. George Brannon, Mrs. John Preston, Mrs. John Donald.

The flu epidemic is still on in Tryon as well as all over the nation. Plenty of rest is needed..
