TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, FEB. 5TH, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 62, low 44, Rel. Hum. 41 . . . World news about the same. New wind storms add havoc to English channel floods which has already taken 2,000 lives . . . Secretary of State J. Foster Dulles, tells Europe to speed up its unity program or face cuts in aid from U. S. . . . Asheville Times of Wednesday had a large two column picture of F. C. Penney of Tryon with his 103rd birthday cake. The picture was taken at the home of his daughters, Mrs. C. E. Hurd and Miss Edith Penney, who held open house in honor of the occasion on Tuesday afternoon . . . The Rotary Club will meet Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. On Friday night Oak Hall will serve a spaghetti supper at the regular price advertised in The Bulletin and in addition offer free facilities for bridge players. This will give visitors an opportunity to make up a party of their own or to get with others who would like to play . . . Please notify The Bulletin of any new homes built within the past 25 years which were missed in the Anniversary Edition. The Knight house on Melrose Avenue is now owned by Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Pugh. The Leonard Carpenter house, should have been listed as the J. C. Kimberly house. So much

GEORGE H. WATERMAN

George H. Waterman, 62, retired oil company executive, died suddenly at his home in Tryon on Wednesday about 6 p. m.

Funeral services are incomplete pending the arrival of relatives. Services will be held at the Church of the Holy Cross in Tryon, probably Saturday. The hour will be announced by McFarland Funeral Home.

Mr. Waterman was born Feb. 16, 1889, in Wheaton, Ill. He was educated in New York schools and the Polytechnic Institute in Brooklyn. He was with the Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., Inc., New York for 30 years. He retired in 1947 and moved to Tryon where he purchased Long Lane Farm from the Edward Flynns.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Suzanne Morse Waterman, and two daughters, Natika and Martha; also three children, by his first marriage as follows: Mrs. David A. Chenoweth of Amityville, Long Island, N. Y.; Leonard A. Waterman, Yarforth, England; and Harold Fulton Waterman of San Lorenzo, Calif. and his mother, Mrs. George A. Waterman, of Stanton, N. J.

Since moving to Tryon, Mr. Waterman became active in the Episcopal Church Men's Club and was treasurer of the Sunday school.

Leonard S. Smith Jr., M. F. H., of Carmargo Hunt, Cincinnati, O., will be a week-end guest of the W. E. Kuhns at the Cotton Patch in the Hunting Country.

Harold Davis of Columbus is a patient in Room 251, General Hospital, Spartanburg, after undergoing surgery Wednesday morning.
