Puppets In Spartanburg

The Salzburg Marionettes, touring America this year for the first time, will present a matinee and evening performance on Saturday, Feb. 21, at Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium under the auspices of The Spartanburg Women's Club.

Mrs. Lee Steele, president of the club, pointed out that the Salzburg Marionette group are a delight to everyone from six to sixty. "Because the figures and presentations are extraordinary and exciting."

The puppets are three and a half feet tall. Their movements and manipulations are handled by a large troupe of puppeteers, directed by Herman Aicher, the famed director of the Marionette Theatre.

The matinee on Feb. 21 at Memorial Auditorium will include the presentation of "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" and "Hansel & Gretel". both long time favorites. The evening program will consist of "Bastein & Basteinne," "The Swan." "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" and "Concert at Schoenbrunn."

The ladies of all the Landrum Churches will meet Friday at 7:30 p. m., at the Methodist Church for World Day of Prayer. Mrs. J. M. Woodruff will be in charge of the program.
