

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 17 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1953

Weather Monday: High 57, low 35, Rel. Hum. 33 . . . Nationalist China repudiates old treaty with Russia thus freeing her to take definite steps to block Russian aid to Red China. President Eisenhower has named Charles "Chip" Bohlen as ambassador to Russia and Francis White ambassador to Mexico . . . This is another week of important events in addition to the regular church and civic club meetings. There are two big things for Wednesday night. The Red Cross chapter will open its campaign with a dinner at Oak Hall, and the Congregational Church Women's Society are having a dessert-birthday party at the Church House which is open to the public for all who wish to join other friends in an entertainment program for the benefit of the church. Rotary and Duplicate Bridge in Tryon and basketball at Columbus Friday night; Dog Show at Harmon Field Saturday at 2:30. Dedication of new Episcopal Church by Bishop M. George Henry is scheduled for Sunday afternoon. . . . J. I. Landis of Columbus has received from the Arizona State Highway Commission a number of attractive booklets in beautiful colors portraying nearly every phase of Arizona life including scenery, agriculture,

---Continued on Back Page---

PLAYOFFS START FRIDAY

A sectional basketball tournament to determine who will represent this county in the District tournament to be held at Valdese will begin Friday night at the Columbus gymnasium. Friday night a preliminary game will be played between the Saluda and Mill Spring girls at 7 and immediately following this game will be Tryon vs. Mill Springs (bovs.) Saturday night Tryon girls will play either Mill Spring or Saluda in the preliminary game, and at 8 o'clock Saluda boys will play the winner of the Tryon-Mill Spring game held Friday night.

Tryon Horses Win Again

A number of Tryon horses went to the Camden, S. C. Hunter Trials Saturday morning and came away with first prizes. George St. Brannon's Farmer's Joy, shown by Arthur Reynolds, won the light-weight hunter class; Mrs. Jane Gagnier's Do I Dare, won first place in the middle and heavy weight class; and her Lark Heels won second place in the same class. A hunt team composed of horses of Mrs. Gagnier's and Arthur Reynolds won second place in that class.

In the afternoon following the Hunter Trials a group of Tryon riders including Miss Molly Washburn, Arthur Reynolds, Bill Braemer and Buck Reynolds, took part in the Camden Hunt.

Spartanburg is having its municipal election today. Neville Holcombe is opposing Mayor Whiteside for mayor. Other candidates are for council and public water works commission.