

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT RAYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DA Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 18 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, FEB. 25th, 1953

Weather Tuesday: High 50, low 34, rain .16, Rel. Hum. 83 . . . Federal budget can't be balanced this year because of defense-foreign aid spending, say assistants to President Eisenhower. Dr. Robert L. Johnson, president of Temple University named head of "Voice of America" under Secretary Dulles. Former Senator Robert M. LaFollette, 58, killed himself with a pistol Tuesday noon at his apartment in Washington. Ill health said to be the cause. President Eisenhower will spend the weekend in Augusta, Ga., playing golf. He will stay at Bobby Jones' cottage . . . Two things tonight: The Red Cross "Kick-off" dinner at Oak Hall at 7:15 and the Congregational Dessert-Birthday program at the Church House at 7:30. Thursday night at 8 the Riding & Hunt Club will give a free program at Oak Hall for visitors and anyone interested. Movies of some of the past shows and riding and racing events will be shown, and Gordon Wright, noted horseman and instructor, will give a brief talk. And to add to the fellowship of the occasion light refreshments will be served. And it's free with the Riding & Hunt Club as hosts. . . . Editor & Publisher, a national newspaper magazine has published something about The

Continued on Back Page

DR. C. C. MARSHALL

Dr. Calvin C. Marshall, father of Mrs. Wesley Mize, died Tuesday night at his home in Riviera Beach, Fla., after a lingering illness.

Funeral services will be held in Tryon Friday at 2 p. m., at the McFarland Funeral Home. Interment will be in Tryon cemetery.

Dr. Marshall was a native of Gloucester, Mass., and was a graduate of Pittsburgh University where he played football. He practiced medicine in Pittsburgh for many years before retiring to his farm near Hendersonville.

For the past several years he made his summer home in Tryon and winter home in Florida.

Dr. Marshall is survived by his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Wesley Mize, of Tryon-Landrum, and one son, C. W. Marshall, of Akron, Ohio, and five grandchildren.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital include Barbara Ann McKaig, Tryon; James E. Johnson, Tryon; Mrs. Katherine Barnes, Tryon; Ernest Brannon, R-1, Landrum; Mrs. Morgan Morris, Tryon. Patients discharged were Mrs. J. A. Garrett, Mill Spring; Mrs. Junior Ramsey and daughter, Landrum; Mrs. Katherine Barnes, Tryon; Mrs. Beatrice Jackson, of Hendersonville. Mr. and Mrs. Viril Hawkins of R-3, Greer, S. C., are the parents of a girl born Feb. 24.

In 1951 the average price paid by North Carolina housewives for large Grade A eggs was 67.7c per dozen. These can be produced on the farm for approximately 35c per dozen.