Red Cross Campaign Dinner

Over 60 Red Cross workers turned out for the "kickoff" dinner at Oak Hall Wednesday night, opening the 1953 Fund Raising Campaign. Some of the solicitors from the county drove many miles to be present.

The Rev. H. A. Pruyn of the Tryon Methodist Church invoked a blessing on the organization, the workers, and the present campaign. Col. Norme D. Frost, co-chairman with Mrs. Frost of the campaign, introduced the two guest speakers. Brent Yount, field representative of the WNC area, explained the new Gamma Globulin project, which is adding $7,000,000 to the National Fund Goal for the purpose of fighting polio-induced paralysis in the nation's children. Paul Ostborg, field director from Donelson Air Force Base, told of the many ways in which the Red Cross serves men in the Armed Forces, both here and overseas, and their dependents.

An amusing skit, showing the frustrating experiences of a canvasser, was put on by Mrs. Ben White, Mrs. Paul Culberson, Mrs. Paul C. Smith, Mrs. Jack Craig, Mrs. Ralph Sullivan and Robert Michael. A short movie, "Your Red Cross" closed the program.

Red Cross Canvassers

Those canvassers for the city of Tryon who were not present at the dinner are asked to pick up their envelopes of supplies at the Chamber of Commerce office, back of Western Union, as soon as possible.

St. Lukes' Hospital has received a contribution to its Memorial Fund in memory of Horace Dawson.
