

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World
Vol. 26—1

Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

23 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1953

Miss Elizabeth James, 9053

Weather Tuesday: High 41, low 33, rain .19, Rel. Hum. 94 . . . Joseph Stalin not expected to live and speculation arises as to who will be his successor . . . Sheriff Frank Crawford of Cherokee County was shot and killed in the Hanging Dog community as he went to serve a warrant on a man charged with burning a sawmill. . . . N. C. House Committee on Veterans Legislation votes unanimously against a bill calling for an election on the question of paying a bonus to Tar Heel war veterans . . . Margaret Neil of Landrum is a patient in Spartanburg General Hospital . . . The two one-act plays given at Sunnydale Tuesday night were enthusiastically received by a capacity audience according to reports. The performances will be repeated again tonight . . . The Duplicate Bridge Tournament this Friday at Oak Hall will be an individual tournament with each player playing one board with every other player. You must notify Stanislas Czetwertynski, secretary, of the club, if you intend on playing. . . . Green Creek girls lose to Oak Hill 60 to 50 in the Valdese Gold Medal basketball tournament. Whitesides paced the Green Creek attack with 28 points

FELLOWSHIP OFFICERS

New officers for the Fellowship Group of the Congregational Church have been elected as follows: Craig Furr, president; Harold Warrington, vice president; Mrs. Nelson Jackson II, recording secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Gaden Corpening, corresponding secretary and treasurer.

HEARN AT KIWANIS

Rev. Henry O. Hearn, pastor of the Tryon First Baptist Church, spoke to the Kiwanis Club on Tuesday at Oak Hall hotel. Mr. Hearn spoke on "Responsibility of Service Clubs in the Community". The speaker said that each individual owed it to himself to help others who were in need and also to assume moral responsibility for things going on in the community which should be stopped. Mr. Hearn's nephews, Billy Ray Hearn and Wayne Philpott of Baylor University, Waco, Texas, sang several selections.

The club voted to sponsor a Green Pastures contest for Polk County. Secretary Woodrow Hague announced that the club had perfect attendance. Guests of the club were Maynard Hughes, Spartanburg; Jake Ivey, Spartanburg; Billy Ray Hearn and Wayne Philpott, Baylor University. R. B. Scruggs was in charge of the program.

Recent arrivals at Oak Hall include T. C. Conrad, Charlotte; Roy A. Clarke, Pittman, N. J.; H. W. Boring, Burlington; B. R. Parker, Greensboro; T. J. McArthur, Greensboro.