

TROPHIES DONATED

P. H. Oliver of Barrington, Ill., has donated a trophy for the Amateur Class in the Hunter Trials to be held March 14th. The Pine Crest Trophy, donated by the Charles B. Sweatts of Minneapolis, Minn., is a perpetual trophy to be held one year by the winner of the Open Class. Those interested in seeing these trophies and the ribbons to be awarded may see them on display at the Tack Shop where there is also a layout of the courses to be ridden by participants in the Hunter Trials.—Contributed.
