

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor
Vol. 26—No. 31 TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, MARCH 16, 1953

Weather (No official report). During the week-end it has been perfect for spring, almost like June. The Hunter Trials had its largest crowd and the golf course had a good crowd out Sunday . . . The citizens of Green Creek Community are organizing to develop that rich agricultural section of the county. O. H. Bowers has been named temporary chairman. The Green Creke Baptist Church is planning a week's singing school to be followed by a revival. The Rev. W. W. Reese is the pastor . . . TONIGHT is the night of the Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor to be held at Tryon school at 7:45. The Scouter supper will be held at 6:30. Public invited to the Court of Honor . . . The public is invited to hear Oliver Freeman speak at the Garden Club meeting Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., at the Congregational Church House. Subject, the Arboretum at Washington . . . Much interest has been expressed over the coming of the Curtis Candy ponies who will perform at the Horse Show. They will arrive on the 12th of April for several days' stay . . . Sunday's Asheville Citizen had a picture of John G. Landrum Jr., retiring chairman of the Tenth District Bankers Group composed of 15 counties. Mr. Landrum delivered

-----Continued on Back Page-----

MUSIC AT KIWANIS

Craig B. Thomas and Dr. Geo. S. Vorburgh Jr., will be in charge of the Tryon Kiwanis Club program Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall and will present a special music program, according to program chairman J. A. Simpson.

HOME FROM AFRICA

Lieut. William T. Capers III, U. S. Air Force, has arrived home for a 30 days' visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. T. Capers Jr., after over a year of service in North Africa. He will report for duty at Fort Worth, Texas, when he leaves Tryon.

Remember the Red Cross Goal

"We hope everyone is remembering," said Mrs. Norme D. Frost, co-chairman of the '53 Fund Drive, "that the Red Cross goal is $800 higher this year than last. And we believe most people do realize it, for the contributions which have come in are for the most part larger than last year's". She went on to say, however, that less than a third of her canvassers' reports are in, although the month is half over.

When your canvasser calls on you, remember a few important facts before you reach for purse or check book:

1. Last year Red Cross field workers at military stations and hospitals handled 355,100 cases and requests of service-men each month. They provided financial assistance during the year totaling $6,461,000.

2. Chapter Home Service workers handled 174,000 cases and requests of service men and their dependents each month and made

-----Continued on Back Page-----