

Junior Horsemanship Changes

At a meeting of the Junior Horsemanship Show committee, the following classes were announced for Saturday, March 21st, at 2 p. m., at Harmon Field:

Class No. 1—Lead Line.

Class No. 2—Junior Horsemanship (for riders 13 years old and under).

Class No. 3—Senior Horsemanship (for those 14 years old to those who have not yet reached their 19th birthday).

Class No. 4—Junior Jumping. Jumps at 2 feet 9 inches (same age group as in No. 2).

Class No. 5—Senior Jumping. Jumps 3 feet 3 inches (same age group as No. 3).

Class No. 6—Horsemanship over a course for handy hunters. Open to all riders who have not reached their 19th birthday. Riders will enter the ring, circle and walk to the first jump; pop over it; trot to the next and jump it; canter to the third jump, take it and check to a complete stop immediately; walk to the gate, open and close it; then take your place in the center as directed by the manager.

Contestants will be judged on control of mount, maintenance of hunting pace over jumps and general posture or appearance in the saddle.
