

MUSIC, MUSIC

Dr. George Vosburgh and Craig B. Thomas had charge of the Kiwanis program Tuesday at Oak Hall and presented a music program appropriate to St. Patrick's Day. Miss Ann Moon and Miss Mabel Randall of Tryon High School sang several selections and Melvin Hipps accompanied them.

Guests of the club were Dr. Joe O'Leary, Brank Proffitt, Mrs. Clarence Rhodes of Tryon; Rev. and Mrs. Earl Hansell of Saluda; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hosea of Miami, Fla. Henry Flynn was inducted as a new member.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Brigham and Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley of Burlington, Vt., have returned after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Koegele on their way home from Florida.

Thursday's Spartanburg Herald has a front page three column picture of Mrs. P. H. Oliver of Tryon presenting the Oliver Trophy to Mrs. Warner Atkins of Cincinnati, who won the amateur class at the Hunter Trials in Tryon Saturday. A picture of her mount, "Erased Error" is also shown.

Don't miss Tryon's BIG SALES EVENT, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. See those Breakfast Room Suites at our store. Only $69.50. Andrews Furniture Co.—Advertisement 19, 20.

The BULLETIN, $3 per copy in county; $4 per year elsewhere.

BETTER HOMES FOR SALE

One of the loveliest homes in the hunting country, with ample acreage. Open fields for horses.

One of the outstanding residences in the Gillette Woods section. Five Bedrooms. Built for permanence, beauty and gracious living.

Five well located homes of the better type, located within the town limits of Tryon.

Stone two bedroom home with a beautiful waterfall and glen at the rear, attractively landscaped, 3½ acres. Reasonable.

Frame four bedroom—2 bath home on a ridge in a choice section near town. City water.

And others.

WALTER A. KNOOP
Res. Phone 311-M

ON DISPLAY

Photographs by Hugh Bradley Norton

TRYON PHOTOGRAPHER

Tel. 111-W

Of the Ballenger

P.-T. A. Style Show

At Ballenger's Dept. Store

Of the

Hunter Trials

70 photographs at the Tack Shop