MISS ANNE DUNSTER

Miss Anne Dunster, 77, passed away Thursday night at St. Luke's Hospital at 10:05. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 11 at the Congregational Church with the Rev. Orville H. White, pastor, officiating.

Miss Dunster was a daughter of the late Dr. Edward Dunster, teacher in medical schools. She was a prominent language teacher and taught in Paris, France, and later in Philadelphia. One of her forebears was the first president of Harvard University.

Miss Dunster had made her winter home in Tryon for the past several years and was a guest at Oak Hall.

Election Officials Named For Municipal Election

The Town of Tryon election officials were announced Friday morning by Town Clerk C. O. Smith as follows:

Registrar, Mrs. Charles MacDonald; judges, Rev. Charles L. McGavern and Clarence Smith.

The town election is non-partisan and candidates will be listed on a municipal ticket.

The election will be held the first Tuesday in May on the 5th from 6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. and the successful candidates will take office the next day.

Registration books will be open from April 18th to April 25th. All citizens of 21 who have lived in the State one year and in the town four months will be eligible to register. Former citizens who have returned to Tryon recently must register again, as a new registration was held last year for the bond election and old names
