

BULLETIN 20 YEARS AGO

Josephus Daniels has been appointed Ambassador to Mexico. . . Miss Iris Jackson has returned from a visit with her sister in Florida. . . . The Tryon Bank & Trust Co., has the busiest day of its history. Over $35,000 was deposited and only $6,000 was withdrawn. No new money was sent the Tryon bank as it was not needed. A lot of gold money and gold certificates were among local deposits. Things are looking brighter now . . . Miss Elizabeth Avant and Miss Margaret Kerhulas of Winthrop College are spending the week-end at home with their parents The Drama Fortnightly presents "Olympia" with the following cast: Miss Constance Burtenshaw, Charles G. Sewall, Mrs. W. A. Dobbyn, Miss Jane Oakley, John Fuldner, James Rion Jr., Frank Moore, Miss Mary Sharp, Miss Ferdinande Poppe, Miss Bertha Lubeck, Mrs. Roberta Henderson, Larry Mills, Al Bowen, Edmund Poppe, John Vollmer. It was directed by Mrs. Louis Fuldner and the costumes were designed by Harold Crandall . . . Miss Sarah Baldwin of Winthrop College is visiting her sister, Miss Myrtle Baldwin during spring vacation Tryon Town Commissioners elect the following officials for the coming town election on May 2: Registrar, James H. Rion Jr., judges, G. E. Bell and Mrs. George A. Cathey . . . The gold hoarders have been given another week in which to return their money to the banks . . . A picket fence is being built out to Theodore Ballenger's gas station (between Goodyear's and Burnett's Gulf Station) . . . Ethan Rippey, U. S. Marines, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rinnv. . . . W. H. Stearns appointed postmaster to replace Fred E. Swann. Many have expressed regrets at losing Mr. Swann, but politics is politics and this always happens when political administrations change. "Uncle Bill" was postmaster under the last Democratic administration . . . (doesn't happen now—Civil Service).

COMING TO TRYON
