

Election Officials Named

-----Continued from Page One-----
are not on the new books unless those voters registered last year.

The present town officials are C. D. Stevens, mayor; R. B. Scruggs, Ernest Kerhulas and E. L. Tollison, commissioners.

CURB REPORTER

-----Continued from Page One-----
at 7:45. Junior Horsemanship Show Saturday at Harmon Field at 2 p. m. Col. and Mrs. Hart Foster will be at the gate to accept the small admission charge to help pay expenses. Sunday evening brings Stainer's Crucifixion at the Church of the Holy Cross at 8. The Tryon Presbyterian Church supper at 7 with budget and election of deacons. One has to read The Bulletin carefully from day to day for the many interesting events taking place in the county.

Even the Lanier Library has a Book Sale on Saturday starting at 10 a. m. There are many reasons to trade in Tryon this week-end.

FOR SALE: 1940 2-door Ford Coach at the State Line Texaco Service Station. A bargain at $125.—Adv. p.

GIFTS

for Easter and other occasions

— at —

RED BIRD ASSOCIATES

Special Reduction During

Dollar Days

Come in and see the many attractive things we have to offer!

ZOGBAUM—MONFUM, E.

Capt. and Mrs. Rufus Zogbaum received a cable this morning announcing the marriage of their youngest son, David Zogbaum, to Mademoiselle Nicole de Monfumet in Paris, France, on March 20th.

Mr. Zogbaum is a graduate of Yale University and was with the Marines in World War II. Following his graduation he entered the diplomatic service.

The bride's mother is with the French Ministry of Labor. And she has an uncle who is a leader of the DeGaulist party.

The Spartanburg Herald reports that Joseph S. Cartee of Landrum is a patient in General Hospital.

We are equipped to install, pump, and clean out septic tanks. All work subject to approval of State Board of Health. J. H. LINDSEY & Son, Phone 5219 (collect), Hendersonville, North Carolina.—Advertisement 20, 27; ap 3, 10, 17p.

Hunting Country Homes for Sale

We have some choice properties for sale in Tryon's beautiful Hunting Country with its magnificent views of the mountains.

Properties are attractively planted. Ready for occupancy with stables, farm equipment and so forth.

For those who love comfort and quiet living away from heavy traffic these places are ideal for rest and recreation as you desire.

Tryon Real Estate & Insurance

TELEPHONE 9

Tom Costa and C. B. Thomas