Recipe For Laughter

"Father Was A Housewife". Tom Butler (Wallace Lankford) keeps house for his wife and their 16-year-old twins. He is quite satisfied with the housekeeping job along with his song writing, but his son, Doug (Gay Corpening) is ashamed of the fact that his father is a housewife. There are times, too, when even his faithful, old battered piano can't lift him from the doldrums. Mother (Betty Bruce), a successful doctor, tries to prove "a woman's place is in the home." She moves her office into the family living room. Results: Woeful and ludicrous complications, which the audience will enjoy on April 10th when Tryon Seniors present their play.—School News.

A 38 ACRE WOODLAND of magnificent virgin trees—giants of hemlock, spruce, beech and many other deciduous trees. A joyful mountain stream cascading through a glen which narrows enough at one place to build a dam to make a private lake or pool. Terraced gardens developed over the years—flowering shrubs, native red bud and dog wood in profusion. All this makes a setting for a very comfortable home of three bed rooms, 2 baths, living room with fireplace, kitchen having built in cabinets. Basement has laundry, garage, and an oil furnace. A stone terrace, work shop and studio combine to make this one of the most attractive properties available. RICHARDSON & KARSTEN, Realtors. — Advertisement 20, 24, 26, 27.
