

COLUMBUS NEWS NOTES

By Mrs. Edward Staggs.

Mrs. Carrie Edwards and Mrs. Robert Bell were Monday guests of Mrs. Edwards' sister, Mrs. R. L. Waldrop, at Welford, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burgess were week-end guests of Mrs. Burgess' mother, Mrs. J. A. Monroe, at High Point.

Airman 1/c Charles Jordan arrived home Wednesday. He has been stationed with the Transport Service of U. S. Air Force at Honolulu for the last 18 months.

The P. H. F. of the Columbus Presbyterian Church met on Saturday night at the home of Mrs. C. O. Jordan. During business, officers for the following year were elected: President, Betty Lawter, vice president, Hazel Edwards; secretary, Peggy Moore; secretary, David Ashley. Mrs. Jordan served refreshments.

Mrs. Fred Wilds was delightfully entertained at a surprise birthday party on March 12th, at her home on Main Street. The party was given by her children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buchner, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, Miss Shirley Wilds, Ralph Case, all of Brevard, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Byrd and daughter of Asheville, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ramsey. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McCarter of Tryon R-1, announce the birth of a daughter, Ronda Carol, on March 12th, at St. Luke's Hospital, Tryon. Mrs. McCarter was the former Miss Sara Jo Hayes of Columbus.

FLOOR SANDING: For the best in floor sanding, finishing, waxing and polishing, J. H. COMPTON & SON, Landrum, S. C., Box 335. Phone 39.—Adv. fri tf.

At FREEWILL BAPTIST CHURCH, Tryon, N. C., each First Sunday-night at 7, there will be 1 HOUR HEALING SERVICE FOR THE SICK. Everyone is welcome to attend these services.—Advertisement 27, 6, 13, 20, 27p.

DAILY BULLETINS—5c each.

A Complete Line of

BABY CLOTHES

Including lovely hand-made attractively decorated—

BATISTE DRESSES
SLIPS and GOWNS
FOR 97c

ALSO BOOTEES

HEAVNER'S
In Landrum, S. C.

CANDLE LIGHT BUFFET SUPPER

Every Sunday Night

6:30 - 8:00

OAK HALL HOTEL

Reservations Appreciated