

Fire Meet At Gymnasium

The Fire Demonstration by the Tryon Fire Department for the benefit of the Boy Scouts all over the county and any others interested in fire prevention and fire fighting, will be held tonight at the Tryon school gymnasium, according to an announcement by Supt. Brank Prffitt.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Williams of Mill Spring are parents of a son born March 23, at 12:03 p. m., at St. Luke's Hospital.

Other new patients at the hospital are Miss Sophia Michiels and Miss Ruth King of Tryon.

Patients discharged include Mrs. Walter Brent and Mrs. Clyde Russell and baby daughter of Saluda.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Webster of Neenah, Wis., have arrived in Tryon for a three week's visit with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Webster, of Second Street, Godshaw Hill.

New arrivals at Oak Hall include R. E. Foster and John M. Henderson, bank examiners of Charlotte, who are at Tryon Bank & Trust Co. this week; Mrs. David Morgan of Asheville (sister of Princess Sandra Obolensky of New York, here for her exhibit at the hotel); Mrs. Alfred Busselle and children, Lucy, Harriet, Samuel and Mahala of Princeton, N. J. (visiting their aunt, Mrs. T. E. Brown).

Junior Horse Show Photographs

now at

THE TACK SHOP

HUGH B. NORTON
PHOTOGRAPHER

A Twist of Spice to Turn Many Heads

Lots of skill in the way these supple tubes of leather were twisted and knotted over the vamp to form the most comfortable little sandal ever. Medium wedge heel, back buckle and open toe.

White, Multi, Black and Blond.

4.95

The DANIEL Co.

LANDRUM, S. C.