

SALUDA BOOK CLUB

Members of the Saluda Book Club entertained their husbands and friends with a dinner at Saluda Inn on March 20th. Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, district president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, and Ralph Ramsey, Brevard attorney, were guest speakers.

The tables were appointed with spring flowers and candles. A five course turkey dinner was served.

Twenty-six club members and guests attended.

Miss Lilian Harris and Miss Sally Sitterly of Chicago are occupying the Tallman guest house on Pinecrest Lane.

People in East Germany continue to escape through barriers to Western Germany. They don't want Communism.

CLOSE OUT!

on 36/38"

PRINTED PIQUE

50c yd.

The DANIEL Co.

LANDRUM, S. C.

Coca-Cola Bottling Company
Forest City, N. C.

Jack Campbell of Gowansville section is being held in Greenville County jail pending an investigation into the shooting of his wife with a .45 calibre pistol Monday afternoon. Officers state that Mrs. Campbell was shot in the stomach when she stepped between her husband and a visitor whom her husband threatened to shoot. All were at the home of Fred Campbell. Mrs. Campbell was reported in a serious condition at Spartanburg General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Brock and son, Bill, have returned from Neenah, Wis., where they took Mrs. Brock's mother, Mrs. E. L. Lashua, who had been visiting the Brocks and Lee Cowan families.

For Kids and Grown-ups—the world's best entertainment—the Puppet Show—Tryon School Auditorium, Friday, March 27th, two different shows, 2 p. m., and 8 p. m. See them both.—Adv. 24, 25.

FRESH TODAY

7:30

COFFEE

Pound Bag

79c

- at -

BALLENGER'S FOODLAND

Tryon, North Carolina