Vol. 26—No. TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1953

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 72, low 43, Rel. Hum. 33 . . . Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, noted aviator and head of the Eastern Airlines, will be the chief speaker at the annual meeting of the Spartanburg Chamber of Commerce tonight . . . Red China and United Nations considering plans to end Korean War. . . . One of the outstanding events of the season will be the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moffett Law on Thursday evening, April 2, from 9 to 12 at Friendly Hills where Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Laidler Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Erskine will be hosts in honor of their parents. And the community, too, will honor this fine couple whose gracious spirit and interest in civic affairs have meant so much to the community. Friendly Hills, the former Law home in Tryon indicates by its name the spirit of the present and former owners. And on Thursday one can really say, "There's something golden in them thar hills." Golden in years and golden in spirit. . . .

Recent arrivals at Buckingham Inn include Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bellamy, Chargin Falls, O.; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Chapin, Port Washington, L. I., N. Y.; Miss Margaret Weller, Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Stevenson, Chaugagua, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Parker, Hartland, Wis.; Geo. J. Reece, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Walker, East Orange, N. J.; Capt. and Mrs. G. E. Barton, Winham, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Aithen, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Scott, Detroit.

New Presbyterian Officers

The new Sunday school officers at the Tryon Presbyterian church are:

Superintendent, Melvin Burns; assistant, Manuel Holthouser; secretary and treasurer, Robt. Weavil; assistant, C. C. Hindman.

LINDSEY SCOGGINS

Lindsey Scoggins, 55, a native of Tryon and brother of Claude Scoggins of Tryon, died Monday night at his home in Union, S. C., following a heart attack. He had been in ill health for several months. He was a former health officer of Union.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Mr. Scoggins, who moved from Tryon in 1922, is survived by his wife and four children; one sister, Mrs. Carletha Johnson of Tigerville and three brothers, Nathan Scoggins of Portsmouth, Va.; G. W. Scoggins of Union and Claude Scoggins, of Tryon.

Gallimore Youth President

At the Spring Rally of the Presbyterian Young People of Kings Mountain Presbytery, which met Sunday afternoon at Kings Mountain, Harold Gallimore of Tryon was elected president of the Western District, which comprises the young people of all Presbyterian churches from Tryon east to Shelby.

Grain supplies in the four principal exporting countries, the United States, Canada, Argentina and Australia, on January 1, 1953, exceeded those of the same period last year by 16 per cent.
