

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 44 TRYON, N. C.

THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1953

Weather Wednesday: high 85, low 49, Rel. Hum. 40 . . . Russians claim they are for peace. Dag Hammarskjold of Sweden has been nominated to succeed Trygve Lie as secretary general of the United Nations . . . Dick Burnett has charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m. and will have as guest speaker, Stanley G. Stevens of New York City who will speak on Gerontology . . . The women of the Tryon Methodist Church will sell Easter eggs dyed in attractive designs Saturday morning at Ballenger's at 10. This will enable those with small children to buy their eggs ready for Easter egg hunts or decorations . . . A family with four boys lost their home and household goods by fire last week. They need beds, bedding and clothing. The boys ages are 4, 13, 17 and 18. The two older boys are working now rebuilding the house and can take care of themselves. Anyone with extra bedding or clothing to spare may contact Miss McGregor or the Welfare Department, phone 2164. . . Four boxes of clothing have been sent to the refugees fleeing from Germany. Mrs. E. B. Olson is chairman of this committee . . . T. R. Young has bought the half interest of Julian Calhoun in the Calhoun Office Supply Co., for many years

-----Continued on Back Page-----

George Vance Rotary Head

George C. Vance was elected president of the Tryon Rotary Club at a meeting of the new board of directors this week. Mr. Vance is now vice president and editor of the Rotaragraph, the club's weekly bulletin. The new president, who takes office on July 1st, is a former executive and partner of a school of accounting in Chicago. Since moving to Tryon several years ago he has been active in various civic affairs giving of his time and talent in commercial art, and as vestryman and treasurer of the Church of the Holy Cross.

The new vice-president is Craig Furr, head of the Lee Hosiery Mill who moves up from secretary and treasurer; James Pruitt of Southern Mercerizing Co., was elected secretary and treasurer.

The new directors are Pruitt, Brank Proffitt and Henry Hart. Hold over directors: Retiring President Paul Culberson, W. D. Prather, George C. Vance, and Craig Furr.

Exhibition At Gymkhana

Frank Duffy of Birmingham, Mich., and his horse, Blue Bonnet, will give a 15 minute exhibition of various dressage movements.

Easter Sunrise Services

Harold Gallimore will be the student director of the P. H. Club Easter Sunrise Services on Sunday morning at 6 at Oak Hall. All young people in the community are invited to join in the singing. Officers of the P. H. Club are Jimmy Ballew, president; Ann Moon, vice president; Ann Covington, secretary. Mrs. Clarence Rhodes will direct the music.