

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 45 TRYON, N. C.

FRIDAY, APRIL 3RD, 1953

Weather Thursday: High 81, low 51, Rel. Hum. 53 . . . The big news of the moment is the dicker-ing with Russia and China over possibilities of ending the Korean War People everywhere getting ready for Easter in various ways. There will be sunrise services all over this section according to announcement by various churches. Those who can't go in person can turn on the radio at 6 a. m. (CBS stations) and get the Moravian service at Winston-Salem and go across the nation with the sun, listening to the music and services of various denominations. WBT-V comes on at 8 a. m., with a parallel play between The Hill of Calvary and the hills of Korea starring Gene Lockhart, Ruth Hussey, Leif Erickson, Jeanne Cagney, Regis Toomey. 9 a. m., Children's Service from Washington National Cathedral, Dean Francis B. Sayre, celebrant at the Episcopal Mass. Tonight (Friday), Olivet to Calvary on TV at 9 o'clock. Saturday at 1 p. m., "I Beheld His Glory". Sunday at 4:30 Omnibus presents "Everyman," a medieval morality play. 6 p. m. Ford Theatre "To Any Soldier", Easter on the Korean front, starring Edmund O'Brien as chaplain. . . . GYMK-HANA today at 2:30 at Harmon Field Horse Show reserva-
-----Continued on Back Page-----

E. B. "ED" BRIDGEMAN

Edward Bryson Bridgeman, 64, well-known citizen of Landrum, died unexpectedly Thursday night at his home.

Funeral services will be announced by Petty Funeral Home.

The deceased is survived by two sons and four daughters as follows: Wesley and Ted Bridgeman of Landrum; Mrs. J. M. Byrd, Mrs. Fred Feagan, Mrs. Harold Morrow and Mrs. John Huggins, all of Landrum; and one sister, Mrs. J. W. Forrester, of Spartanburg.

Youth Program Sunday

The program of the Tryon Presbyterian Youth Fellowship Sunday evening will consist of colored slides of Montreat College and Montreat Conference grounds. Montreat is the official conference center of the Presbyterian church. Adults are invited to the meeting Sunday evening at 7.

SALUDA NEWS NOTES

Julia Ann Johnson.

Mrs. Albert Pace, niece of Mrs. Tom Staton, who was in an automobile accident six months ago near Gowensville, S. C., died in a Greenville hospital Tuesday. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Gowensville Baptist Church. Attending from Saluda included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Staton. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Holbert, Miss Lula Staton, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Collins. Mrs. Pace was paralyzed from the injuries received in the wreck. She is survived by her husband and two small daughters.

Easter Sunrise Service on lawn of Oak Hall Hotel Sunday morning.