

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 53 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1953

Today, all Tryon area into three counties welcome the Horse and Hound Show with good weather and a festive spirit. Nearly all the stores and other business houses are closed for the two shows which start at 10 a. m. The Hound Show usually completes its work in the morning. The afternoon Horse Show starts around 2 p. m., with the Curtiss Candy Company ponies performing. They paraded Trade Street Tuesday afternoon and drew enthusiastic crowds. All parking space around the ring and box seats have been sold. But there is plenty of free parking space.

Harmon Field for all holders of general admission tickets. Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Mahler were hosts at a buffet supper Tuesday night in honor of Judge Andrew Montgomery of Uno, Virginia. The cocktail party at the Country Club Wednesday following the Horse Show is for members of the Riding & Hunt Club and their guests, all committee members and judges and exhibitors . . . A movement is on foot to invite Dr. George Farrand Taylor to offer as a candidate for Tryon Town Commissioner. His friends claim that his interest in the welfare of the community as a whole can not be questioned. His wide experience in religious, education and civic af-

Continued on Back Page.

IN CHARGE OF PONIES

The men in charge of the Curtiss Candy Co. Six Pony Hitch performing Wednesday at Harmon Field during the Horse Show include Bill Tapsell, Gurnee, Ill., driver of the hitch; Joe Hutter, Mt. Pulaski, Ill., assistant on ponies; Dick Flanders, Hornell, N. Y., tack man, and Ralph H. Kraft, Chicago, Ill., public relations officer.

The six ponies and wagon cost about $25,000. They perform at rodeos and charity events as well as horse shows without charge. The candy company farm outside of Chicago consists of 3,000 acres.

Cancer claims the life of one American every two and one-third minutes, according to the American Cancer Society.

President Eisenhower is shown contributing to the Cancer Fund in Washington. Donors in Tryon and Polk County may send their contributions to Miss Alva Jackson, treasurer, at the Tryon Bank & Trust Company.