

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 60 TRYON, N. C.

FRIDAY, APRIL 24TH, 1953

Weather Thursday: High 91, low 46; Rel. Hum. 47 . . . Exchange of prisoners of war continues in Korea . . . Kent Miller, the noted trainer of Elkridge will not be at the Blockhouse Steeplechase Saturday as a steward. He had been in 111 races without falling until a few days ago. So he will not be able to make the trip . . . did you vote for mayor and commissioners last time? You can't do it this time, unless you registered again last year. There has been a NEW REGISTRATION. Even though you've been voting here for 50 years you must register again unless you registered for bond election last year. SATURDAY is last day . . . TODAY is a full day in Tryon with Rotary at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall; Steeplechase Spaghetti Supper at Sunnydale; Men's Garden Club at 6:30 and Duplicate Bridge Tournament at 7:45 p. m., at Oak Hall; and last performance of Little Theatre group at the Parish House. Better Living Show in Spartanburg Wednesday through Saturday . . . The Tryon Police Department has arrested a number of teen-age boys for breaking in school, stores and houses. This is the time for parents to check on their children and save them from more serious trouble when they

---Continued on Back Page---

STEEPLECHASE RACES SATURDAY AT 2:30 P. M.

By Monte Dedman.

(United Press Correspondent)

At the close of the entries for the Block House Steeplechase races to be held Saturday at the Plamondon course in the Hunting Country, over 50 horses have been entered in the 5 races scheduled to start for the day.

The races will begin at 2:30 p. m., with the featured race being "The Blockhouse." This race will end the season's equestrian activities here. "The Blockhouse" race is the covered one of the entire race card.

A member of the Midwest Hunt Race Association, these races are under the sanction of the Hunts Committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and is sponsored by the Tryon Riding & Hunt Club.

Horses from several states in the Union, and one foreign country are entered in this year's races. Some of the nation's top jockeys, both professional and

---Continued on Page Three---

Speaking of Tryon Mountain. Down from Tryon Peak to the West is "Rickshaven," the former home of Mrs. Ben Ricks, a comfortable home in a wondrous setting, built more than 40 years ago, where she lived until her death, which the folks up there said was from the "milksick". Dr. Grady of Tryon said acute indigestion. That never satisfied her neighbors.

Mrs. Ricks was a vigorous individual, who drove her own team and on occasions drove the hay rake in the lower field of her place.—C. O. Hearon in the Spartanburg Herald.