STEEPLECHASE RESULTS

Several thousand spectators saw what was termed the best steeplechase races ever held in Tryon Saturday at the A. D. Plamondon Block House course. Carter P. Brown, George Webster and other members of the Tryon Riding & Hunt Club, sponsors of the races were highly pleased over the attendance and performances of everything connected with the event. All the programs for sale by the Girl Scouts were sold out giving an indication of the attendance and interest.

A little shower just before the last race made the day perfect for riders and horses. A heavy rain started in a few minutes after the last race was over.

Winners in the races with horse, owner and rider in that order, were as follows:

The March Hare (about two miles over brush course): First, "Mammission", owned and ridden by C. Jelke; second, "Ginny Bug", H. S. Nichols, D. Murphy; third, "Irish Double," A. E. Pew Jr., F. Dooley Adams; fourth, "Erin's Cottage," Mrs. M. G. Walsh, C. Cameron. Time 3:15.

Second race, The Pacolet Plate," (flat race). Won by "Tony" owned by Walter Newman and ridden by Carroll Edney.

Third race, The North Carolina Hunt Cup, $500 purse. (About 3 miles over timber): First, "Temper Red" owned and ridden by C. W. Stitzer; second, "Happy Quest", owned and ridden by C. Jelke; third, "Haywire", Mrs. C. Musett, owner, D. Murphy, trainer, H. Tilson, rider; fourth, "Daves," H. S. Nichols, D. Murphy, P. Murphy. Time: 5:25.

Fourth race, The Tryon, was so large it was divided into two div-
