

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 63 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1953

Weather Tuesday: High 76, low 40, Rel. Hum. 39 . . . James M. Baley Jr., of Marshall is resigning the State Republican chairmanship in order to be federal district attorney. He will be succeeded by Thomas E. Story, Wilkesboro lawyer . . . Winston Churchill is being called Sir Winston now since he was knighted by Queen Elizabeth. . . . Redbook Magazine headline reads, "Philip Wylie says our century offers more than any other, and proves it" . . . In the Spartanburg Bridge League Tournament this week, Mrs. Baxter Haynes and partner were second N. S.; Jules Feder and partner, . . . Columbus Presbyterians are making plans for an educational building to join the church on the right of the building. It will be two stories high and 30 by 60 feet. Tentative plans call for $15,000 to $18,000 building with Sunday school rooms, fellowship room and other needed facilities. Within the past two years the Columbus Presbyterians have paid $6,000 for their manse and $1,600 for new pews and other improvements to the church property . . . Margaret Herbst, public relations office, New York, reports that Francis W. Howe's Clarendon Gardens at Pinehurst are open to the public. It is full of azaleas, camellias, 185 varieties of holly, . . .

---Continued on Back Page---

Driver Headed For Tryon Leaps To His Death

Today's Asheville Citizen reports that Leon Russell Schooler, 26, of Zionsville, Ind., driving a truck load of hay to Tryon for the W. E. Kuhn Cotton Patch, was killed in a leap from the brakeless truck Tuesday night near Marshall, N. C. A fellow passenger, Edward Perkins, also of Zionsville, was uninjured and Highway Patrolman J. E. King investigating the accident said Perkins told him this is what happened:

"The big truck, loaded with a cargo of hay from the Folly Farms and destined for Tryon, started to make a sharp turn on twisting U. S. Highway 25-70 about seven miles north of Marshall.

"Schooler pushed the brakes as he started down a hill on the other side of the curve. The brake pedal went to the floor without any effect on the truck.

"Schooler yelled 'we've got no brakes;' told Perkins to jump, and then Schooler "disappeared."

"Perkins grabbed the wheel of the vehicle and steered the brakeless truck into a bank on his left side of the highway. The truck remained upright.

"King said investigation showed that a rear wheel of the truck passed over Schooler who had fallen in a ditch after his leap. The officer said Schooler's skull was crushed.

"Madison County Sheriff E. Y. Ponder and Coroner Fred McDevitt assisted in the investigation. Schooler's body was taken to the Bowman Retcor Funeral Home in Marshall.

"Coroner McDevitt has called an inquest at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the chapel of Bowman-Retcor Funeral Home in Marshall."