

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 64 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 84, low 43, Rel. Hum. 38 . . . World news about the same. About 35 liberated GI's from Korea have returned to the United States. Talk going on for liberation of more prisoners of war. Tornadoses and storms in Texas, Mississippi and Louisiana bring heavy showers and wind to this area. . . . N. C. Legislature expects to adjourn this week-end . . . Today's Spartanburg Herald had a front page picture of a 5,000 gallon moonshine unit destroyed near Landrum. The still was hidden in a barn. Federal officers said they plan to bring charges against two brothers who were said to be connected with the operation of the still. . . . Duplicate Bridge at Oak Hall Friday night at 7:45 . . . William E. Munk says his partner, Baxter Haynes, shot a 33 on the second 9 holes the other day at the Tryon Country Club. That's close to the club record and better than Sam Sneed made here . . . CORRECTION: the telephone number for the MULE for sale ad should be 2111. If you are looking for a good mule, telephone Mrs. Mellen C. Martin right away . . . . .

Capt. and Mrs. J. R. O'Connor who were guests of Capt. and Mrs. C. E. Dimick while enroute from Florida, have returned to their home in New London, Conn.

Robert Foster House Burned

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Foster of Mill Spring was destroyed by fire about 10 Thursday morning. The house is near the Mill Spring school and a pupil first saw the fire and reported it to school authorities. Principal Stanley Walkowicz organized a rescue squad among the high school students and they saved all the furniture and household goods on the first floor.

New Asst. Farm Agent Here

Robert D. Flake, former assistant county agent in Richmond County has been appointed assistant county agent for Polk County, according to announcement Wednesday by County Agent Paul E. Culberson.

Mr. Flake is 24 years old, was reared on a farm in Anson County and has a B.S. degree in soils from North Carolina State College, graduating in 1949, specializing in agronomy and agricultural engineering.

Mr. Flake recently returned from Japan after serving as a commissioned officer in the army. He and Mrs. Flake will occupy the Loyd Comer house near the Tryon Country Club road entrance.

Here From South America

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Huxley of Evanston, Ill., are arriving in Tryon today for a 10 days' visit with their daughter, Mrs. Robert L. Dick, and family, after a three months tour of South America.

Guy H. Sowards will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m., and will have as the subject of his talk: "Pity the Lawyer."