Valedictorian and Salutatorian Announced For Tryon High

Winners of the top scholastic honors of the 1953 graduating class of Tryon High School are Fred Bridgeman, valedictorian, and Emma Warmby, salutatorian, Supt. Brank Proffitt, who made the announcement said: "In order to qualify for valedictorian and salutatorian, Fred and Emma had to have the best high school scholastic records among the members of the graduating class."

Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bridgeman of Lynn, and Emma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warmby of Tryon.

In addition to their scholastic attainment, both these young people have been outstanding in other activities. Fred was president of his class during his first year in high school and vice president during his sophomore and junior years. As a senior, he was co-editor of the "Tryonite" and had a part in the senior play. Emma is a cheerleader, a member of the Beta Club, Boosters Club, Glee Club, and "Tryonite" staff, and she also had a part in the senior play.
