Vol. 26—No. 69 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, MAY 7TH, 1953

Elizabeth 9063
Miss James

Weather Wednesday: High 70, low 60, rain .39; Rel. Hum. 92 . . . Communist war in Indochina claiming interest of U. N. now. U. S. planes flying supplies to defenders . . . Congratulations to Cowan's Super Market on its 20th birthday. The growth of this store from year to year has won the admiration of all who have seen the Cowan family work to make a success of their business. It is now tops in its line and an asset not only to this community but to the area as a whole including upper Greenville and Spartanburg Counties. The store has a number of food specialists helping to put on a three day sale celebrating the event and invite the public to come see. . . . Another business, just four years old, that is also making rapid progress is the Smith Super Market which is celebrating its grand opening in a new building of its own in Columbus on Saturday, May 9th. Paul and Cecil Smith, the owners, invite the public to their grand opening. The Columbus Chamber of Commerce, Columbus Plumbing and Heating, Buenting, the electricians, Ed Lankford, the contractor, also invite the public to the opening and see the part they had in building the new store which is of Roman tile brick, like the modern new drive-in branch banks in the cities;
