

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor
Vol. 26—No. 74 Elizabeth 9-53 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, MAY 14TH, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 87, low 54, Rel. Hum. 42 . . . The Texas storm area now claims 98 people dead. Chinese Reds and U. N. still debating . . . "Pity the Minister" is the Rotary club subject for this Friday at Oak Hall hotel at 1 p. m. Thomas J. Hair will be in charge of the program and the Rev. Charles G. Sewall, Presbyterian minister, lecturer and author, will be the speaker. The Farmers Federation News is just of the press featuring Polk County. The cover has pictures of Pearson's Fall, a 4-H Club calf and owner, the Hatch Mill and a young rider at the horse show. An editorial by Associate Editor Jim McClure says, "Everything the people of Polk County do, they do well." Page after page gives pictures of Col. William Polk for whom the county was named, the Hound Show, Mill Spring school, the Court House at Columbus; Carroll and Ray Feagan and their record producing Jersey cow. The news articles give historical information and the general development of the county in industry, agriculture, commerce, education, tourists, civic activities, etc. The edition was prepared by Editor Robert G. Beard under the title "Polk County—Enchanting Land of Work and Play", borrowing from H. V. Kaltenborn and Margaret Culkin Banning

Beta Club Elects Officers

Mable Randall, a rising senior, was elected president of the Tryon High School Beta Club for the coming year at a meeting held on May 12th, at the home of Peggy Harris.

Other officers elected were Melvin Hipps, vice president; Pat Caston, secretary and Anne Covington, treasurer.

Outgoing officers are Glenn Head, president; Ambrose Mills, vice president; Betty Bruce, secretary; Fred Bridgeman, treasurer.

FIREMEN HONORED

At the biennial supper given by Tryon Volunteer Fire Department for a get together meeting with the incoming town officials every two years, held Wednesday night at the Firemen's Hall, Mayor C. D. Stevens presented official fireman's badges to Chief Birch Arledge, Assistant Chief Marshall Ballew, Captain Wofford Foster, Secretary Frank McFarland and the following other firemen: W. W. Creasman, Jack Ford, Eb Bishop, Edward Fisher, Clannie Ward, J. W. Taylor, Homer Arledge, Robert Dedmond, Woody Hague, Clyde Tharpe, Fred Swann, Clarence Scoggins, Melvin Burns. A number of other members were not able to be present.

Wayne Creasman, Edward Fisher and Jack Ford were recognized as members with 25 years or longer membership.

Mayor Stevens in presenting the badges expressed the appreciation of the town officials and of the community for the loyal, efficient service the Volunteer Fire Department has given.

Special honor and recognition was given to Charles J. Lynch,

Continued on Back Page