

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 79

TRYON, N. C.

THURSDAY, MAY 21ST, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 82, low 58, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . President Eisenhower says Truman left U. S. Finances in a mess, or words to that effect, and that taxes will have to stay up until the situation is cleared. Lindbergh flew the Atlantic 26 years ago Wednesday. The first man to fly the Atlantic non-stop. A few weeks ago his son was the first to go underground to explore a watery cave on the Pacific Coast. Love of adventure seems to be in the blood. Taking candy from a baby is not always easy in the long run. An Oklahoma City man was jailed for doing it Wednesday . . . Another Polish pilot flies MIG-15 plane to Denmark and turns it over to the Allies . . . Tonight is the night of the last meeting of the Parent-Teachers in Tryon for this season. A district health officer will speak on teenage problems. . . . A representative of any business, no matter how small, reflects the attitude of that business to the public. Today's Charlotte Observer reports the death of Luther M. Tharpe for 35 years a paper salesman in the Southeast for Caskie Paper Company of Charlotte. His integrity and fine character in general built up confidence of customers in the firm he represented. Most of these customers never saw Caskie, but they

---Continued on Back Page---

Rev. Chas. McGavern Speaker At Baccalaureate Service

The Rev. Charles L. McGavern will deliver the baccalaureate sermon for the Tryon High School graduating class Sunday, May 24, at 8 p. m.

The Rev. H. A. Pruyn will give the invocation and the Rev. Joe Wagner will give the benediction.

Mayor J. O. Tally of Fayetteville, past district governor of the Carolinas Kiwanis District, will deliver the commencement address on Wednesday, May 27. He will be introduced by former State Senator Carroll P. Rogers, who is also a past lieutenant governor of Division 1, of the Kiwanis District.

Mayor Talley delivered the chief address in Tryon last October at the 25th Anniversary of the Tryon Kiwanis Club.

WALTER L. GREEN

Walter L. Green, 55, Tryon barber, died suddenly Wednesday afternoon about 2.

Mr. Green was at his place of business when he suffered a heart attack. The body was taken to McFarland Funeral Home where funeral services will be held on Friday at 4 p. m., with the Rev. Henry O. Hearn, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by a former pastor, the Rev. B. G. Henry, of Hendersonville. Interment will be in the Columbus Baptist Cemetery.

Mr. Green was a native of Polk County, the son of the late William J. and Anna Wilson Green. He had lived in the county most of his life.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Minnie McBride; one son, Leon Green of Charlotte;

---Continued on Back Page---