

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily

Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 84 TR

N. C. THURSDAY, MAY 28TH, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 90, low 70, Rel. Hum. 41. That report was taken before 5 p. m., Wednesday. It turned cool Wednesday night. The thermometer reading dropped below 60 . . . Tryon Bank & Trust Company will be closed Saturday, May 30th for Memorial Day. This gives patrons only Friday to do banking business until Monday morning. The post office will be closed, too, except for two hours from 10 to 12. Probably some other government agencies will also be closed, but no announcement has been made . . . Tryon Country Club is planning a big day Saturday with a two-ball Scotch foursome tournament starting at 1:30 and a picnic at 6:30. The picnic will be served at the club house by Pine Crest Inn, but reservations must be made as soon as possible at the club office, tel. 440-W. Prizes will be awarded for various contests. James G. Ferguson made one of his best records at the Country Club the other day when he shot a 34 including four birdies, three of them in a row. Good putting played a big part . . . The Rev. Joe Wagner will be the guest speaker at Rotary Friday and will talk on Minority Religious Groups in America. Isham Henderson has charge of the program . . .

COLUMBUS NEWS NOTES

By Mrs. Alice T. Clarke

Miss Charlotte Edwards of Rutherford Hospital spent the week-end with home folk.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hampton of Raeford, Mrs. J. F. Arnold of Portsmouth, Va., Mesdames S. E. Waldrop and J. M. Hodge of Rutherfordton were recent guests in the home their sister, Mrs. J. A. Feagan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burgess Jr., and daughter, Vicky, visited in High Point last week-end. They were accompanied home by Mrs. W. A. Burgess Sr., who had been with her invalid mother, Mrs. James Monroe for several weeks.

The women of the Presbyterian Church met in the home of Mrs. J. W. Gantt on Tuesday evening. At this meeting they celebrated the birthday party and enjoyed an interesting program in which Mrs. Frank Moore, Mrs. J. W. Gantt, Mesdames John J. and Jack Rezab and Mrs. T. C. Bailey participated. The birthday objective this year is "Furlough Homes for Missionaries".

Mr. and Mrs. Wash Hill of Rutherfordton were Saturday visitors in our town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Louie Tilley of Lebanon, O., are visiting Mr. Tilley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Tilley.

Marion Tillotson, who was severely burned while at work last week was able to return to his home Monday from St. Luke's Hospital.

Week-end guests of Mrs. Mollie Shields and Mrs. J. A. Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shields and son, Pat, from Windor, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burnette and children returned to Newport

-----Continued on Back Page-----