James, Miss Elizabeth

Weather Monday: high 94, low 67, Rel. Hum. 36 . . . The Coronation is the big news of today. Pictures of it may be seen over television this afternoon around 5 o'clock and again at 10 o'clock. Oak Hall has invited everyone to see it on their set . . . This is vacation time. Asheville Citizen-Times Sunday had a mail away edition for the benefit of those who wish to send copies to friends. Monte Dedman was the feature writer for Polk County. Every county in Western North Carolina was represented to show its advantages as a vacation spot, hotels, lakes, sports, historical atmosphere, and everything to make the place luring to the vacationers were featured. Polk County is surrounded by all these advantages . . . Card received by the Curb Reporter from Editor Talbot Patrick in Beograd-Kalemegdan, Valuz, Yugoslavia, says, "The people of this country have fought for independence for centuries." Just shows we must always keep up the fight for liberty . . . In the article All For St. Luke's in Monday's Bulletin the line "St. Luke's Hospital Auxiliary has $5,500" should have read "HAS PLEDGED $5,500". Pledging is wonderful, but the money aint in the bag yet. It's coming though, because when a group of mercy inspired women get behind a thing it goes over . . .
