THURSDAY, JUNE 4TH, 1953

Elizabeth
James, Miss

Weather Wednesday: high 89, low 46, Rel. Hum. 33. . . Write your friends in the North that the thermometer goes down to 46 in June sometimes. Just because it's nice and warm most of the time in April winter guests have been heard to remark, "I'd hate to be in Tryon in the summer; it must be terribly hot." It does get hot, but not continuously so. Most nights are comfortable, and even on hot days you can find a cool spot even if you have to go to Pearson's Falls . . . Sunnydale, which is being operated this summer by Mrs. Allen Correll (Elizabeth Kerhulas) will have organ music Friday night beginning at 8:30. Earl Paul and M. J. McClement of Spartanburg will play on the electronic organ for those who dance or want to listen while they eat . . . Clint Swain, chairman of Polk County Production and Marketing Administration Committee says "Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for any of the years 1951, 52, 53 may apply for a 1954 wheat acreage allotment. Farmers must apply to his PMA committee by June 30. Application forms are at the County PMA office in Columbus" . . . Coroner's Jury will hear the Ball murder case today (Thursday) at 2 p. m. at Court House in Columbus . . .

DR. DAVID WENSTRAND

Dr. David Eric William Wenstrand, 76, passed away Thursday morning at St. Luke's Hospital about 9:10 following a short illness.

Funeral arrangements had not been made at press time. McFarland Funeral Home of Tryon is in charge.

Dr. Wenstrand was born May 6, 1876, at Motala, Sweden, son of Andrew Eric and Ida Whilhelmina (Sandstrom) Wenstrand. He came to the United States in 1886 and was naturalized in 1897. He received his medical degree from Northwestern University in 1900 and interned at Cook County Hospital 1900-02; he received a fellow in pathology at Rush Medical School in 1902-03. For 33 years he was assistant medical director Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co., and was its director from 1936 to his retirement to Tryon. He was president of the American Association of Life In-

Cleveland Banker Buys Here

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Abbott of Cleveland, Ohio have bought the George Waterman property known as Long Lane Farm, through Richardson & Karsten. Mr. Abbott is vice president of the Central National Bank of Cleveland and will retire in the fall when he and Mrs. Abbott plan to come to Tryon to make their home. They have one son who is now in the Army and was a student at Cornell University when he enlisted.

The Waterman place was known for many years as the Speed and Beaumont place and later the E. G. Flynn's owned it and sold to the Watermans.
