

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 91 TR 9053 N. N. C. MONDAY, JUNE 8TH, 1953

Weather Friday: High 91, low 57, Rel. Hum. 45; Saturday high 85, low 70, rain .12, Rel. Hum. 81; Sunday high 86, low 70, rain 2.81, Rel. Hum. 81. That was a welcome rain to all. . . . A truce in the Korean war is expected any moment. Return of prisoners of war will be voluntary. . . . Presbyterian churches of America are working toward unity. . . . Highway Commissioner Harry E. Buchanan of this district stated in The Times-News last week, "By way of long range planning for Henderson County, we hope to eliminate the Saluda Mountain bottleneck on U. S. 176 and the Lake Lure bottleneck on U. S. 74." . . . Lona B. Skipper of Tryon is listed in the Spartanburg Herald as a patient at General Hospital. . . . A shortage of old-fashioned muzzle-loading rifles in the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina may force the abandonment of one of the most picturesque mountain events, the annual beef shoot at Cataloochee Ranch near Waynesville. The shoot was held on July 23 last year and a score of oldtimers with ancient "hawg-eye" rifles drilled targets at several hundred yards, the prizes being quarters of freshly slaughtered steer. But since then, Owner Tom Alexander of Cataloochee says, collectors have bought and taken away so

— Continued on Back Page —

MRS. LOLLIE EDWARDS

Mrs. Lollie Edwards, 63, formerly of Mill Spring, Polk County, died Thursday afternoon about 2:30 at Campobello, S. C., after a lingering illness.

Burial services were held at Beulah Baptist Church Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Edwards was the former Miss Mary Champion, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Champion. Her husband died last April.

She is survived by four sons and two daughters as follows: Loice and Joe Edwards of Great Falls, S. C.; Paul of Ocala, Fla.; John of Campobello; Mrs. Phyllis Mathieu, Fort Lee, Va.; Mrs. Ruth Laberge, Campobello. Two brothers, Joe Champion of Detroit and George Chamnion of Columbus; three sisters, Mrs. James L. Smith, Columbus; Mrs. Nellie Williams, Mill Spring; Mrs. John Morris, Chesnee, S. C.

MRS. C. W. HIGLEY

Mrs. Nora Hall Higley of Tryon died Monday morning, June 8th, in Salisbury, Conn., following several months' illness.

Private funeral services will be held and in lieu of flowers friends may send contributions to the Sharon Hospital, Sharon, Conn.

Announcement of Mrs. Higley's death was made by Newkirk Funeral Home, Canaan, Conn.

Mrs. Higley was the widow of Charles W. Higley. She is survived by her daughter Mrs. John D. Briscoe of Lakeville, Conn., and her son, Philo H. Higley of New York City; also two sisters, Mrs. Frederick Smith 3rd, of South Orange, N. J., and Mrs. Frederick W. Upham of Chicago.

Mrs. Higley moved to Tryon

— Continued on Back Page —