Weather Friday: High 89, low 64, Rel. Hum. 62; Saturday high 90, low 66, rain .16, Rel. Hum. 78; Sunday high 90, low 64, rain .15, Rel. Hum. 78 . . . It was cold enough for a fire last night and this morning as the result of the thunder and hail storm southeast of Tryon. The thunderstorm in the Inman area uprooted trees, blew down telephone and power lines about 8:45 p. m. Sunday. The roofs of many building were blown off. A railroad official on the morning train said the corn fields on both sides of the railroad track looked as if they were ruined. He had not seen The Spartanburg Herald and didn't know what had happened . . . South Koreans retreat before 30,000 Chinese Reds. These attacks may prolong the war say observers . . . President in a speech Sunday said we must not prohibit people from writing and saying what they think even though we disagree with them. He believes in the policy that the truth will keep us free. Every time we hide a thing we make it worse in the long run. We must be strong to face temptation and not yield. We must have all angles of a thing presented to us in order for us to decide what we think is best for us
