

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 97

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, JUNE 16TH, 1953

Weather Monday: High 76, low 62, rain .11, Rel. Hum. 76. . . . The Korean war continues. In order to meet increased post office expenses Postmaster General Summerfield is asking for an increase in first class letters to 4 cents. The rate has been 3 cents since 1932. Approximately 100 carloads of peaches were lost during the thunderstorm in the Inman and Gramling sections Sunday night Work of beautifying the park on the depot grounds began Tuesday morning with J. A. Simpson representing the garden cubs, assisting . . . Miss Faith Burwell, daughter of Ernest Burwell of Tryon was graduated this week at Northwestern University dramatics school as one of the top three in her class Robert Head of Columbus, a graduate of Tryon school, has just finished Spartanburg Junior College where he was awarded a scholarship to Wofford College, and Miss Edith Melton received a scholarship to Converse College. . . . Sheriff Ralph Matthews of Russell County, Ala., was on trial for five days last week before the Supreme Court in Montgomery for neglect of duty. Over 100 witnesses were used. Five Russell County citizens brought the charges against the sheriff.

Rhodes Hearing Friday

A preliminary trial to hear charges against J. L. Rhodes on a warrant sworn out by his daughter, Mrs. Genelle Rhodes Dalton, will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. at the Court House in Columbus, according to Magistrate T. A. Gilliam, who issued the warrant. The warrant charges assault on Mrs. Rhodes with a pistol.

McGuinn Reunion Sunday
At Cooper's Gap Church

The McGuinn family reunion will be held Sunday, June 21st, at the Recreation Hall in Cooper's Gap between Mill Spring and Chimney Rock.

The family organization has an official mimeographed newspaper called the McGuinn Review which is boosting a large attendance for Sunday, Father's Day. The Review states that Sadie S. Patton, author of Sketches of Polk County History, will give a talk on the value of family reunions and homecomings; a guest minister will give a sermon; officers for the new year will be elected. The Review also gives a brief summary of the major events in the McGuinn family the past year.

Hobo Party Here Friday

A Hobo Party with everyone dressed in patched and ragged clothing will be held by the Fellowship Group of the Congregational Church Friday, June 19th, at 7 p. m. at Lake Lanier Tea House. A picnic supper will be served to the hoboes.

Ligon Flynn leaves Wednesday for six weeks' training with the ROTC at Fort Belvoir, Va.