

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor
Vol. 26—No. 98 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 1953

Weather Tuesday: High 76, low 63, Rel. Hum. 76 . . . The Chinese and South Koreans continue to fight intensely . . . State Highway Safety Director H. D. Jones has resigned at the request of Ed Scheidt, the new State Highway Commissioner. Mr. Scheidt plans to take new steps to reduce the traffic accidents in the state. He said to newspaper men in Raleigh Tuesday that 460 people were killed on the highways of North Carolina last year. A successor to Jones has not been named. Scheidt is a former F. B. I. chief. . . . One of noteworthy undertakings now before the people of this section is the sale of brooms and mats by the Lions Club to help raise money for the benefit of the blind, and those needing glasses. People can afford to buy these good brooms and mats and give them to friends as presents. In that way you will help a lot of people: the blind, your friends and many others by your Good Samaritan spirit . . . Wilton Garrison in Tuesday's Charlotte Observer said, "Austin Brown of Tryon won the Ruckelshaus Steenle Chase at Indianapolis on Bit-Whip Comet with a new course record of 5:44. . . . Carroll P. Rogers of Tryon was listed among state leaders calling on Governor W. B. Umstead Monday seeking funds for a

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients include Otis Moore, Mrs. Louise Morton of Tryon and Mrs. Allan Randall, Lynn.

Patients discharged: Mrs. Joe L. Flynn, Mrs. J. B. Atkins, Mrs. Albert Cannon and baby daughter.

MINORITY RELIGIONS

The Rev. Joe Wagner, pastor of the Tryon Presbyterian Church, spoke to the Kiwanis Club Tuesday at Oak Hall. Rev. Mr. Wagner spoke on "Minority Religious Groups In America."

The speaker estimated that there were between 270 and 400 different religious groups in America and that 90 per cent of church members belonged to 24 denominations. Rev. Mr. Wagner said that the remaining denominations stress some doctrine which they feel is not emphasized enough in the established churches. He then named many of the small religious groups and told of some of their beliefs.

William Guthrie of Raleigh was a guest of the club. R. L. Dick was in charge of the program.

Exchange For Fathers

St. Luke's Hospital Exchange also has many attractive gifts for Father's Day, according to Mrs. Harkness Smith of the Exchange committee.

CORRECTION

The bloodmobile will be in Tryon and Columbus on June 26th from 12:30 to 6:30 p. m. instead of the time stated in Tuesday's Bulletin.

Donors To Memorial Fund

St. Luke's Hospital has received contributions to the Memorial Fund in memory of Mrs. Edmund Wylie and Dr. David Wenstrand.
