

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest D.

Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 99 TR

V. N. C. THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1953

Weather Wednesday: High 92, low 67, Rel. Hum. 57 . . . Syngman Rhee ordered 14,000 anti-Communist prisoners of war freed in an attempt to wreak truce plans. U. N. Prisoner Command begins search for the missing prisoners. . . . 50,000 unarmed workers riot in fight against Communist rule in East Berlin. President Eisenhower says riots indicate general unrest behind the iron curtain . . . Supreme Court Justice Douglas granted an indefinite stay of execution to Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, condemned atom spies, but six hours later Chief Justice Vinson called a special session of the high tribunal to review the order. Rep. Don Wheeler (D-Ga.) moved in the House to have Douglas impeached for "high crimes and misdemeanors in office" . . . The voice you hear coming from Vera-Ellen in "Call Me Madam", now showing at the Tryon Theatre, is that of Carol Richards, who is a sister of Dr. George S. Vosburgh of Tryon . . .

ROTARY MEETS FRIDAY

Dr. J. W. Welborn will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m. and will have as guests speaker, Dr. H. P. Anderson, pastor of the Landrum First Baptist Church.

Ernest Gibbs Appointed As Federal Appraiser

Ernest H. Gibbs of Columbus, chairman of the Polk County Republican Executive Committee, has been appointed Federal Housing Appraiser and will leave soon for Greensboro for indoctrination.

Mr. Gibbs is giving up his partnership in the Columbus Realty Co., to his partner, George Marting, who will carry on the business. He will also resign as chairman of the County Republican party and as a district officer of the Masonic Lodge.

Covington Kiwanis Delegate

Archie L. Covington, delegate to the Kiwanis International Convention, which meets in New York next week, will leave Saturday accompanied by his daughter, Miss Ann Covington, and Miss Joy Farthing who will visit relatives.

Paul Butler, Dist. Forester

Paul Butler Jr., who recently finished his service in the Navy as a lieutenant, junior grade, is now assistant state forester for eight counties in upper South Carolina.

Mr. Butler is a graduate in the school of forestry at the University of Georgia. He is making his present headquarters in Spartanburg.

People do not have to wait until Lion rings their door bell. Brooms and mats are for sale by a number of Tryon stores who are cooperating in this project to help the blind in this county and wherever needed.