Nearly $10,000 Received By Adams-Millis Employees for Summer Vacation Pay

Summer vacation pay checks totaling $78,749.96 will be delivered Friday to 1935 eligible production and maintenance employees of Adams-Millis Corp. plants in Tryon, High Point, and Kernersville. The summer vacation checks are based on individual earnings for the six months period from Oct. 1, 1952, to April 1, 1953.

Employees who have been with the company for five or more years will receive vacation pay amounting to four per cent of their six months earnings. Those employees with one to five years continuous service will receive two per cent of their earnings for the six months period.

Of the total 1935 employees being paid vacation pay, 1263 will receive four per cent and 672 will receive two per cent.
