

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest

DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 26—No. 107

TRYON, N. C.

TUESDAY, JUNE 30TH, 1953

Weather Friday: High 88, low 66, Rel. Hum. 72; Saturday high 88, low 68, rain .92, Rel. Hum. 82; Sunday high 88, low 62, Rel. Hum. 62; Monday high 92, low 66, rain .02, Rel. Hum. 58 . . The war in Korea continues. U. N. still trying to get a satisfactory peace. A million dollar fight against polio epidemic in Montgomery County, Ala., is under way. 30,000 boys and girls are to be vaccinated. 18 public school buildings will be turned into huge laboratories. The medical staffs of Maxwell and Gunter Fields are aiding civilian doctors and nurses in the undertaking . . . Governor Umstead has named former commissioner of revenue Edwin Gill as state treasurer to succeed Brandon Hodges of Asheville, who resigned to accept private work . . . Monday's Charlotte Observer had a column long story about Miss Irene Jeanne Paulus, the French girl who made her home with Capt. and Mrs. Benjamin Tate Perlman last year and attended Tryon High School from which she was graduated. The article by Charles Hamilton told of her admiration for American schools and the opportunities for greater development through extra curricular activities such as sports, plays, Beta Clubs. "All those things help make studying

Continued on Back Page

Adams-Millias Vs. Landrum

The Adams-Millias baseball nine will play an exhibition game with Landrum Wednesday afternoon at 4 at Harmon Field.

Anyone having chairs, sheets and pillow cases to give, please notify Floyd Evans, Welfare Department or call 2164.

Nylon Can Be the Answer To A Traveler's Prayer

If members of your family are among the thousands who are looking forward to a trip within the next month or two, you've probably been worrying about what to take in the way of clothing, and how to go about this business of packing.

If you have done much traveling recently, you and nylon are probably old friends by now, but if not, here's a tip from Julia McIver, State College extension specialist in textiles and clothing, that may solve a lot of your packing problems.

Nylon, a miraculous fiber made of coal, air and water is a life-saver when you're trying to keep your baggage to a minimum and when you don't want to be bothered about pressing every time you change clothes.

Shirts, blouses, dresses, and lingerie made of nylon may be washed and dried in record time—and nylon's non-ironing qualities are an answer to the traveler's prayer.

Nylon articles usually cost a little more than those of other fibers, according to Miss McIver, the long-yearing qualities and ease of care offset the extra cost.

One point to keep in mind when

Continued on Back Page