Vol. 26—No. 112 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, JULY 7TH, 1953

Weather Monday: High 93, low 68. It was 96 in Spartanburg on Monday. Now is the time for people to keep their premises clean. There are more flies than usual. The drug stores and grocery stores should join hands and spray the sidewalks and entrances to their places of business and give proof that the stuff they sell really works to kill insects. Over 6,000 children were inoculated against polio in Caldwell County Monday. This keeping fit is a constant area problem even bigger than a county. Watch people who throw empty cartons on the sidewalks. In some places it is against the law. People have the kind of government and community they are willing to put up with. Let's keep on our toes for better health and better appearance through cleanliness.

BRIDGE RESULTS

Winners in the duplicate bridge tournament Friday were Mrs. E. R. Pinckney and Miss Elise Pinckney, first; Mrs. J. G. Newhall and H. M. Guilbert, second; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerby, third.

A Master Point tournament will be held this Friday at Oak Hall at 7:45.

All visitors in the community and guests at the various inns who like to play are invited to participate in the tournaments.

PANTHER STILL SHERIFF

Judge J. Will Pless declined to remove Sheriff Loyd B. Panther Monday until a final hearing can be held at the August term of Superior Court in Columbus.

Charges of misconduct of office were brought before Judge Pless by a number of prominent civic and political leaders by affidavits that the sheriff had been drunk on a number of occasions. This group was represented by Solicitor Clarence O. Ridings, assisted by At-
